Social Impact Fellowship for Career Growth — Join from anywhere!

Apply to our career acceleration program for professionals looking to find more purpose in their work and make a positive impact on their career

This 6-month program for working and in-transition professionals will jump start with an in-person training where you'll get to meet face-to-face with the MovingWorlds team as well as your cohort of Fellows from around the world.

We'll spend an inspiring, informative, and energetic weekend together learning leading social impact frameworks, as well as exploring what it takes to transition and/or accelerate your career in this sector.

After our in-person weekend, you'll return home but stay very engaged with our team and your cohort as you continue to explore leading insights directly from industry leaders on human-centered design, shared-value, and sustainable social enterprise.

Applications close on April 30th for our next cohort which will kickoff in Lisbon, Portugal in July – Learn more and apply here!
